RAIN FAILS TO DAMPEN

Musical Program Over Dispatch Broadcast Most Successful of Week

Inclement weather last night failed to "dampen" the success of one of the most interesting programs yet sent out from the big radio broadcast station of the Dispatch Papers. In spite of the usual disastrous effect of a lightning storm on the radio, fans reported the signals very strong and the quality of the success with her selection, distance encores with her selection, distance encores with her selection, which her selection, which permits of the evening was Mrs. Stoner's recitation, "Down With the Men." Each of the artists expressed mingled bewilderment and excitement in playing for the radio. Next week's programs will offer
